Lawyers of Distinction Welcomes HORIA R. NEAGOS

as a 2026 Distinguished Member

[Grand Rapids, MI] — The Lawyers of Distinction is proud to announce that Horia R. Neagos, a criminal defense attorney based in Muskegon, MI, has been selected and certified as a 2026 Distinguished Member. This recognition places attorney Neagos among an elite group of legal professionals nationwide who have demonstrated exceptional skill, integrity, and dedication to the practice of law.

Lawyers of Distinction is widely recognized as the fastest-growing community of distinguished attorneys in the United States. Unlike many recognition programs, membership is not for sale. Instead, each candidate undergoes a thorough, independent evaluation that assesses objective qualifications, including active bar licensure in good standing, a minimum number of years in practice, peer and client reputation, notable case results or professional accomplishments, and a clean disciplinary history. Only attorneys who meet all criteria are invited to join.

“Being named a 2026 Lawyer of Distinction reflects an attorney’s sustained commitment to excellence in their field,” said a spokesperson for the organization. “Our members represent the highest caliber of legal talent across all 50 states and the District of Columbia. We are honored to welcome Horia R. Neagos to this distinguished community.”

Members gain access to a national network of leading legal professionals, exclusive member benefits, and the right to display the Lawyers of Distinction seal—a mark recognized by clients and colleagues as a symbol of professional achievement.
